AKASHI KAIKYO COASTLINE

7.36 miles · 11.84 km

Maiko Park Footpath | JR Asagiri to JR Suma

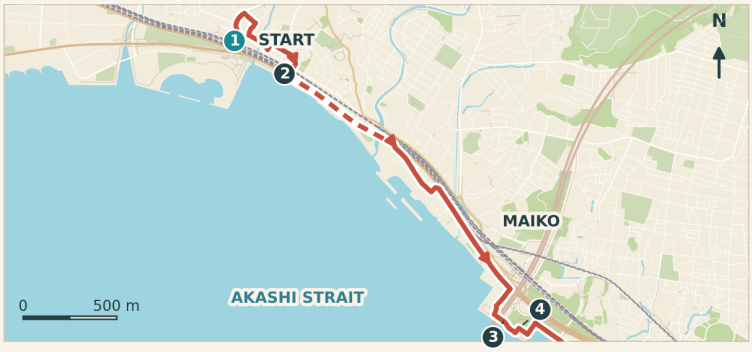

V1 / COASTAL SEA WALK

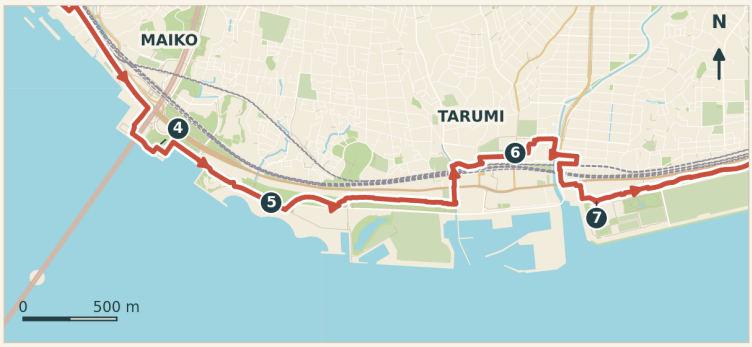

Allow about 2¾–3½ hours

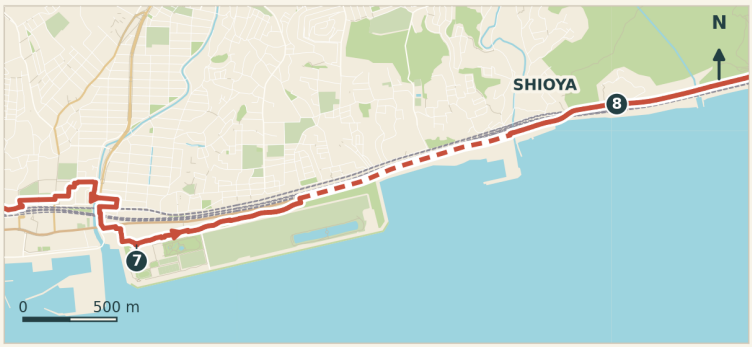

Mostly flat · Some stairs

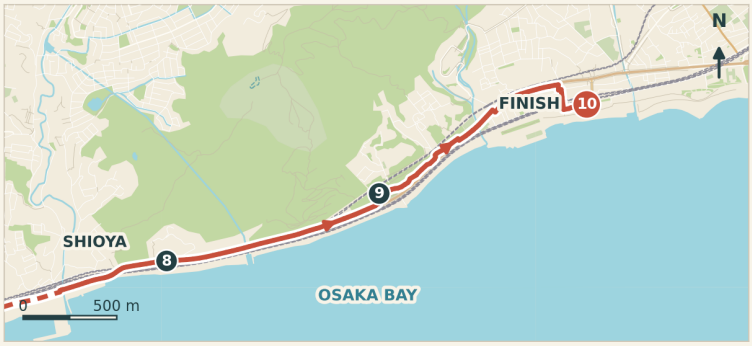

ASAGIRI TO SUMA

North up · Dashed line marks road-sidewalk alignment

THE WALK

From Asagiri, use local paths and Route 2 sidewalks to Maiko Park. Pass under the Akashi Kaikyo Bridge and by the Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall, then follow the Azur Maiko beach paths.

Use the Tarumi station-side paths to bypass port facilities. Follow Hiraiso Green Space and the sea-side Route 2 sidewalk to Shioya, then pass through Sumaura Park and finish at JR Suma's south entrance.

CHECKPOINT		MILES
1	JR Asagiri Station	0.00
2	Kariguchidai crossing	0.50
3	Under Akashi Kaikyo Bridge	1.72
4	Sun Yat-sen Memorial Hall	1.80
5	Azur Maiko promenade	2.27
6	Tarumi Station approach	3.33
7	Hiraiso Green Space	3.96
8	Shioya coastal sidewalk	5.67
9	Sumaura Park	6.44
10	JR Suma Station south entrance	7.36

Cumulative miles from JR Asagiri Station.

Stay on the sidewalk and use marked crossings. Dashed sections follow the OSM road alignment where the sidewalk lacks its own line.

At Azur Maiko follow signed pedestrian bypasses around fenced seawall sections. Keep off the seawall in rough weather.

GETTING THERE & BACK

Outbound: JR Osaka Loop Line from Morinomiya to Osaka. Change to a westbound JR Kobe Line Special Rapid, then to a westbound local at Sannomiya for Asagiri. Return: take an eastbound JR Kobe Line local from Suma toward Osaka, changing at Sannomiya if useful. At Osaka take the Loop Line via Kyobashi.

OSM and published access notices checked 07 Nov 2026. Follow local signage.

© OpenStreetMap contributors · ODbL | OpenFreeMap / OpenMapTiles

Sources Maiko Park Coastal restrictions JR West Route 2 walking notes